

CLIENTS CHOOSE WHERE TO DIRECT THEIR DONATIONS

SKAGIT COMMUNITY FOUNDATION FUND

Contributing unrestricted donations to this fund enables the Board of Directors to use its discretion in any given year. Discretionary funds make it possible to meet community needs in the most appropriate and impactful way.

AREA OF INTEREST FUND

- Arts & Culture: this includes libraries, museums, theater, dance, music, poetry, literature
 - Education: this includes providing education opportunities for all ages through classes, workshops, after school programs, in-services, trainings, seminars
 - Health: this is primarily for health promotion and human services such as food, shelter and critical needs
 - Environment: this includes stewardship, preservation, recreation, parks, trails, and outdoor education
-

DESIGNATED FUNDS

Clients may designate a nonprofit organization with an endowment at the Skagit Community Foundation as a beneficiary. Most nonprofit organizations do not want the responsibility or liability of managing endowment funds. A client may add to our current designated funds or create a new one.

- Anacortes Public Library
 - Boys and Girls Clubs of Skagit County
 - Community Action of Skagit County
 - Friends of the Anacortes Community Forest lands
 - Friendship House
 - Humane Society of Skagit Valley
 - Lincoln Theatre
 - McIntyre Hall and Performing Arts Center
 - Museum of Northwest Art
 - National Alliance for Mental Illness Skagit chapter
 - Padilla Bay Foundation
 - Skagit Adult Day Program
 - Skagit Symphony
 - Skagit Valley Family YMCA
 - The Mount Vernon Library
 - Youthnet
-

SCHOLARSHIPS

DONOR ADVISED FUNDS with option to name children as successor advisors
